Demand Made that Russian Ships in Chinese Ports Be Sent to Sea at Once or Squadron Will Destroy Them Even in Neutral Ports.

LONDON, Aug. 17.- Japan has made a demand of China, practically in the nature of an ultimatum, that she immediately enforce her neutrality in the case of the protected cruiser Askold aand the torpedo boat destroyer Grosovol, now at Shanghai. Japan pointed out that the time limit, twenty-four hours, permitted by international law had exed, and that Japan therefore was at liberty to take such action as may m to her expedient.

At the Japanese Legation here it was expressly stated that the Tokio Government had no intention of remaining quiescent if Russia attempts to nel China to give asylum to her men-of-war and authorise repairs at ports which would enable them to resume belligerent operations.

Should China fail to comply immediately with Japan's demand the di vision of alpanese warships now in the vicinity of Shanghai will, the Legation declares, be instructed to enter the port and capture the Askold and in the hope that the finding of some of Grosovol, as was done in the case of the Ryeshitelni.

STOESSEL TO KEEP UP DEFENSE. The announcement of the Mikado's offer to allow non-combatants to we Port Arthur, coupled with the demand for the surrender of the garm. causes a revulsion of feeling here. The original report that nonstants would be permitted to depart before the storming operations an was regarded as a humane and considerate act.

The War Office is without official confirmation of the summons served on Gen. Stoessel, but not the slightest idea exists in military circles at he will yield, so long as food and ammunition hold out, without a sent, even to protect defenseless women and other non-combatants from the horrors of bombardment.

"Gen. Stoessel, as an independent commander, would have a perfect right under the Russian military regulations to surrender at discretion." said a member of the General Staff to the correspondent of the Associated Press, "but it may safely be assumed that a man of Stoessel's temper will not create a new precedent in Russian history. Our military annals do not show a single case where a commander yielded a fortress upon the demand of the enemy in order to avoid a fight. Sebastopol was taken by had snapped the bone in half. A rumor is again in circulation this evening that Port Arthur has fallen, but the source is not traceable and it seems to have no more foundation than the previous rumors to the same effect.

The answer of the Commander of Port Arthur to the Japanese demand for the surrender of the fortress is only expected to-day. Consequently it is not possible that news of the fall of Port Arthur can have reached St.

FELL 4 STORIES TRAIN HIT TROLLEY

Penned in Shaft and Iron Bars at Bottom Caused Delay of More Than Half an Hour in Rescuing Her.

An oil stove in the flat of Mrs. Yeita Goldberg, on the top floor of the four-story tenement at No. 11 Clinton street, got out of order to-day and began to smoke and splutter. Mrs. Goldberg. thinking that it was about to explode jumped out the airshaft window.

She fell to an area five floors below and lay there moaning. Neighbors called Policeman Warfield, of the Eldridge street station, from his beat. He found that all entrances to the bottom found that all entrances to the bottom of the airsnaft were closed by iron bars, and it took him half an hour to force his way to the side of the woman. Mrs. Goldberg weighs 200 pounds, and more time was consumed in enlarging the opening so that she could be removed. She was taken to Gouverneur liospital. Her injuries will probably prove fatal.

Smoke from the oil stove rolled from the windows of the Goldberg apartment, and some one turned in a fire alarm. When the firemen arrived the stove had regulated itself, and they turned their attention to assisting Policeman Warfield to remove the injured woman.
